The Pike

Man shall rest his wandering heart in the glory of God's mountains . . . and high in the nook of folded earth the music of the hills will echo His peace. The hills are a peace seen in the loftiness of towering peaks, in the shadows of sun-struck trees, and in the nestling of water-drenched valleys.

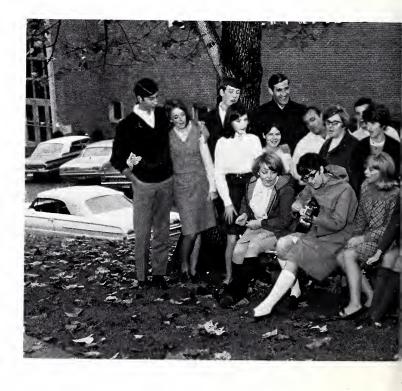

Homes are made where the mountain sky dips gently to meet the idle green of a nurtured valley. Homes are made and people live and love and die in the mountains . . . in the mountains, where peace descends as an enveloping fog.

Is People . . .

with ambitions and dreams, with a past and a future . . . and with faces that reflect the heart of the college.

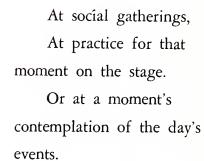

The Pike is students sitting in the den . . . going to chapel . . . sharing college activities. These students are the people who will be tomorrow's teachers, leaders, and researchers, but today, they are merely the "College Kid".

. . . And More People

and in academics, the students at the Pike conscientiously strive for high achievement.

Places . . .

The Pike is a place of sundry places.

There is the town . . . and the place of worship.

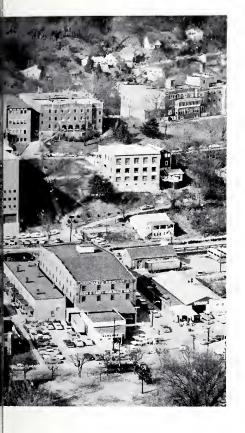

It is a place of "the great 89 steps" upward to knowledge . . . and a place of friendly warmth as professors meet to discuss their harried schedules. The Pike can be a place of scenic beauty as shown by the Breaks Interstate Park.

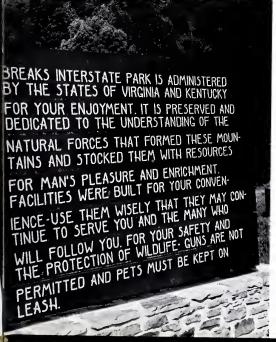

All places are a part of the whole, and all lend themselves to the making of one complete environment.

Inspiration

Lift up your eyes . . . and before you, see the wonders of the world so created as to awake the soul to the music of life.

The Pike is often the scene for modern ideas—many of which are fads. The campus boasts the miniskirt . . . the paisley tie. One can see the shoe shine boy with his cheerful face as he casually strolls to meet his friends . . . who give the luxury of a new hairstyle with no charge!

The pierced ear look . . . the dangling hoop . . . the feet bared in favor of independence
. . . the people finding laughter in unusual ways . . . all of these are the Pike's way of saying a campus can be as "kool" as a campus does.

Events . . .

The most exciting world of a campus exists in the producing of a play or the glow of a campfire. People seem to be swept up in the events . . . and to believe in the magic of make-believe . . . and to feel that happiness is part of the 'now' on the Pike.

Community Service . . .

Community service is caring . . . knowing people's needs . . . and being willing to give one's heart, hands, and mind to the fulfillment of these things. The heart of the Pike is preparing a generation for service in the world.

FACULTY AND STAFF

President Johns

Dr. Thomas H. Johns and his gracious family arrived on campus early in May, 1967, to take up residence in the President's house. They arrived, with warm hearts and friendly smiles, in an atmosphere of excited anticipation as the campus welcomed a new First Family.

Dr. Johns has come to Pikeville College to bring leadership to an ever-changing, ever-challenging campus life. His progressive ideas, his honest interest in the students, and his prowess as an educator indicate an exciting future for Pikeville College.

Our First Family

1967 Brings a "First" to the Pike . . .

The Reverend John Skelly and his vivacious wife Una have come to Pikeville College to serve in the capacity of Vice-President and his family. They have proven themselves to be quite capable of carrying out the necessary demands of the position. The Skellys are warm ... energetic ... pleasant ... additions to our campus.

ORGANIZATIONS

With this yearbook comes a wish for enjoyment and remembrance of a year well spent. It is hoped that the "Highlander" is a treasured souvenir of your college years.

SHELBY STANLEY Editor-in-Chief

The 1967 HIGHLANDER is the product of hard work by a group of students spending a great deal of time in order to meet deadlines. My thanks go to them for a job well done.

Those individuals who take an active part in the Student Council must definitely have stamina. Representing the various attitudes of the student body is a demanding job. Officers of the Student Council must be especially durable since the elections at "The Pike" are getting more competitive each year. No one can deny the fact that the Student Council is a training ground for leadership.

D. McNeely, J. Hays, B. Caudill, P. Vinciguerra, D. Osborne

The objectives of the Student Council are many and of great importance. Instead of attempting an enumeration of them individually, let it be said simply that the Student Council is the voice of the student body. In this capacity, this particular organization is of immeasurable significance in the advancement of this campus.

The Record

"To Put the Pike In Print"

As the official newspaper of Pikeville College THE RECORD serves as an interest medium for the student body. Published by the students of the college and printed weekly as a special section of the PIKE COUNTY NEWS, THE RECORD's primary objective is to serve as the voice of Pikeville College.

Alpha Phi Gamma

Established in 1966, Alpha Phi Gamma was founded to honor the outstanding journalistic students of Pikeville College. The basis for recognition by the society is a high standard of scholastic and creative ability. Alpha Phi Gamma is one of the most active organizations on campus, having sponsored dances and several fund raising drives.

The members of Alpha Phi Gamma acknowledge their responsibility as an honor society to help in the growth of Pikeville College by promoting and helping to improve collegiate journalism.

TREASURER	Bonnie West

Pikeville College's nationally recognized Delta Beta Chapter of Alpha Mu Gamma was established in 1966 to honor all high ranking students of foreign language and those faculty members who profess an interest in the languages. One of its important objectives is to foster a more comfortable environment for those students from other countries who are now on campus. This organization is a representative of the general attitude that world peace can be accomplished through a better understanding between Americans and citizens of other countries.

"From whence cometh my help?" The most common answer is "My help cometh from the Lord." The Student Christian Fellowship tries to aid the student in answering this particular question for himself. The mountains of Pikeville provide a serene setting in which the student may continue his search for truth. Hope that the world can be made better through faith is the prevalent attitude.

Backstage in anticipation of a play at the Pike can be found mounting excitement, nervousness, curiosity as to the number of people in the audience and grease paint which transforms a common classmate into a hero on stage. It is necessary for every club to have some officers to lead it in its endeavors. In POP this entails deciding upon a play to present and following through to the production. Production means many tedious rehearsals, accumulation of props and costumes, and establishing a mood through lighting.

Homecoming is many things to many people. One of the highlights of campus life is the coronation of a young woman chosen to represent her college at the Homecoming activities each year. Pikeville College was highly honored in having Miss Pat Hall of Pikeville, Kentucky, reign as Homecoming Queen for 1967. Pat is typical of the college with her lovely graciousness and winning personality. She is a wonderful asset to Pikeville's tradition of Homecoming.

RAY HARM

Transcendentalism comes to the Pike when Ray Harm convincingly explains to the student body that "Mother Nature" is an ample provider. Other than being able to maintain life, nature can be an inspiration for the intellectuals. May Sarton proved this. Hedy West provided additional material for our cultural development with the folk songs originating in our own area.
